PhD Thesis

Title	A Detection of Cosmological 21 cm Emission from CHIME in Cross-correlation with the eBOSS Lyman- α Forest
Summary	My contributions to the commissioning, operation and calibration of the Canadian Hydrogen Intensity Mapping Experiment (CHIME) leading up to the highest redshift detection of cosmological 21 cm emission to date. Cross-correlating with measurements of the Lyman- α forest from eBOSS made it possible to overcome residual foreground contamination in the CHIME data.

Awards

The Brockhouse Canada Prize for Interdisciplinary Research in Science and Engineering (as member of the CHIME Collaboration), National Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada	2022
Lancelot M. Berkeley – New York Community Trust Prize for Meritorious Work in Astronomy (as member of the CHIME/FRB Collaboration), American Astronomical Society	2022
Governor General’s Innovation Award, (as member of the CHIME collaboration), Governor General of Canada	2020
Four Year Doctoral Fellowship, University of British Columbia	2018-2022
Walter C. Sumner Memorial Fellowship, Walter C. Sumner Foundation	2018-2020
Donald A. Chant Graduate Scholarship (Declined), University of Toronto	2016
McGill Physics Graduate Scholarship (Declined), McGill University	2016
Canada Graduate Scholarships – Master’s (Declined), National Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (via UofT)	2016
Undergraduate Student Research Awards, National Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada	2015
Undergraduate Student Research Awards, National Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada	2014
J.W. McConnell Scholarship, McGill University	2013
